

JOSHUA DAVIS

CURRICULUM VITAE

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Secondary Teacher, Wollondilly Anglican College; Tahmoor, NSW – 2016-present

In this position, I have taught Secondary English from Years 7-12. I am currently teaching a Stage 6 load, including English Advanced and English Extension in Year 12. I have also established Legal Studies as a new elective at the College. From a leadership perspective, I am currently a Year Patron and was Acting English Coordinator in Term 2, 2019. In terms of co-curricular activities, I have contributed to the debating competitions at the College as both a team coach and adjudicator, and, more recently, the Duke of Edinburgh Award.

Secondary Teacher, Southern Highlands Christian School; Bowral, NSW – 2015

This was a casual teaching position where I covered a variety of classes across Primary and Secondary.

Indigenous Tutorial Assistance Scheme (ITAS) Tutor; University of Wollongong; Wollongong, NSW – 2014

In this position, I tutored an Indigenous Australian law student under a government-funded scheme. I worked closely on explicit learning intentions and outcomes and, in the process, gained an awareness of Aboriginal ways of learning.

Tipstaff to His Honour Justice R O Blanch AM, Chief Judge of the District Court of NSW; Sydney, NSW – 2013

In this role, I worked in the chambers of a senior judge, attending to his research needs. I also sat with him in superior courts such as the Court of Criminal Appeal and assisted in the administrative functioning of the court.
